Essay competition: conditions of participation

By submitting his/her essay to the email designated for the Future Maritime Leaders essay competition, futureleaders@globalmaritimeforum.org, the sender agrees to the below conditions of participation in the competition:

- 1. The Global Maritime Forum will provide the three winners of the competition with the following:
  - Participation at the two days of the Global Maritime Forum Annual Summit 2019 and associated official social events;
  - An introductory workshop the day preceding the Summit;
  - Coverage of accommodation in Singapore for the duration of their stay (up to 4 nights);
  - Coverage of travel to and from Singapore (economy class);
  - A daily stipend to cover any additional costs necessary for their participation at the Summit and incurred during their stay in Singapore (such as city transportation between the hotel and the Summit venue, any meals not provided at the Summit venue);
  - Publication of their essays on the Global Maritime Forum website under the "Insights" section.
- 2. The winners of the essay competition will be required to submit to the Global Maritime Forum personal information necessary to arrange their travel to and from, and accommodation in Singapore. This information will be treated in accordance with the Global Maritime Forum's privacy policy and will be used exclusively for the purposes of the essay competition.
- 3. The essays and CVs will be read by the Global Maritime Forum team, who will conduct an initial screening of the submissions, as well as the Selection Committee appointed specifically for this competition, who will select the final winners.
- 4. The three winning essays will be published on the Global Maritime Forum website under the "Insights" section.
- 5. The Global Maritime Forum may use interesting and relevant arguments from the submitted essays for the purposes of its other projects, programmes and activities (for example the Global Maritime Issues Monitor, social media activity, etc.). The author of the essay will be notified of such a use. Any direct or indirect citation will be attributed to the author.
- 6. Participants who submit their essay in the Future Maritime Leaders essay competition thereby confirm that they will be 18 or above during the entire duration of their participation at the Global Maritime Forum's Annual Summit in Singapore (i.e. sometime between 28 October and 1 November 2019). Likewise, we do not accept essays from individuals who are over the age of 30 at the time of submission of their essay.
- 7. If one or more points of these Conditions of Participation is violated or if the participant does not agree to it, this may result in them being excluded from the competition.
- 8. The privacy policy of the Global Maritime Forum applies.
